

Pilgrimage with Father Joe to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help
Thursday, September 6, 2018
Saint Francis Xavier Cathedral/
St. John the Evangelist Parishes

Father Joe will be leading his two parishes on a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Champion on September 6th. We are blessed to have the site of the only approved Marian apparition in the United States so close to us. Father hopes that many of his parishioners from both parishes are able to join him for this day of prayer and reflection. Below is the itinerary for the day and the signup form .

- 9 AM: Depart St. Francis Xavier Cathedral Parking on a Lamers Motorcoach
- 10-10:30 AM: Presentation on the history of the Shrine by the Shrine Staff
- 11 AM: Mass (There would be no 8:30 AM Mass at St. John the Evangelist that morning)
- 12 PM: Lunch in Brise Hall

Upon completion of lunch and for the rest of the afternoon, there would be free time for prayer and reflection, confession w/Father Joe, visiting the gift shop, or enjoying the beautiful grounds.

There will be the following scheduled options.

We want this pilgrimage to be a time for you to spend the day doing what is most meaningful to you.

- 1 PM: Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction (This will be in place of the regularly scheduled Holy Hours at each parish for the month of September)
- 2:15 PM: Group Rosary and Stations of the Cross on Shrine grounds
- 3 PM: Chaplet of Divine Mercy
- 3:15 PM: Depart
- 4 PM: Arrive back at Saint Francis Xavier Cathedral

Cost : $10 to cover the cost of lunch.
